Where greatness gathers in goodwill, much can be accomplished.

You are invited to attend a gathering of visionary thinkers, planners and providers at Energy EASE07 in San Francisco on November 16, 17, 18. Please come and meet insightful, influential potential partners. You are welcome to add your ideas, connections and resources to those of others as we address market-shaping issues for energy sustainability.

Collaboration is the key. The need for positive market change is urgent and global. When groups and individuals work together towards a common vision, we create fast, effective change the EASEY way.

You will be introduced to EASE Gaiaspace™, an on-line community network dedicated to the development of positive ideas and innovative solutions by way of rapid collaboration. EASE Gaiaspace enables you to continue and grow the work begun in person at Energy EASE07.
